

Chatham Habitat for Humanity

Media Release

Funky Fashion Show & Burrito Bash will be raising the roof!

Benefit set for Tuesday, March 1

PITTSBORO - Local leaders are storming the catwalk in fashions made from recycled materials for the 2nd annual Raising the Roof: Funky Fashion Show & Burrito Bash in partnership with Family Violence & Rape Crisis Services. The event will be held from 6-9 p.m. on Tuesday, March 1 at the General Store Cafe in Pittsboro as a benefit for the two non-profit organizations.

Funky Fashion Show 2010

The "celebrity" models include Pittsboro Mayor Randy Voller; County Commissioners Brian Bock (R), Mike Cross (D), and Walter Petty (R); Chatham County Sheriff Richard Webster; last year's winner Betty Wilson and daughter Jane Allen Wilson; Home Store Manager Mike Breedlove with internationally renowned artist Louis St. Lewis; dancer & designer Melody Eggen; Police Lt. Lesia McCollough; Chatham Habitat Board President Dick Forbis; and others. Pam Smith, owner of Beggars & Choosers, will serve as the Mistress of Ceremonies.

In addition to the fashion show, the evening includes burritos & a side dish prepared by the General Store Cafe and live music by Tommy Edwards of Bluegrass Experience, with Stan Brown and LaNelle Davis.

Attendees will also get the final opportunity to bid on themed gift baskets, which are currently up for bid at the Chatham Habitat Home Store, located at 467 West St., and at Second Bloom, located in downtown Pittsboro. Baskets have been created especially for gardeners, dog lovers, sports fans, and more.

Tickets are $12 in advance at The Home Store and at Second Bloom and $15 at the door.

The General Store Cafe is located at 39 West Street in Pittsboro.

For information, contact Bett Wilson Foley at (919) 542-0794 x 222 or at bettfoley@chathamhabitat.org.

Chatham Habitat for Humanity

Family Violence & Rape Crisis Services

Upcoming Event:

Caterpillar Rodeo - Learn how to operate five different Caterpillar machines, then go dig some dirt! A benefit for Chatham Habitat for Humanity.

Friday, April 8

2 sessions: 8:30 AM - 12 noon , 1:00 PM - 4:30 pm

Tickets: $150 donation (tax deductible) includes lunch

Contact Emily for additional information: (919) 542-0794 x 221 or at emilysilverman@chathamhabitat.org

View Chatham Habitat news tips

About Chatham Habitat for Humanity

Everyone in our community deserves a safe, decent place to live. Since 1989, we have worked to change substandard housing conditions throughout Chatham County by making homeownership possible for more than 100 families. We accomplish this by creating partnerships between families in need and hundreds of volunteers and donors. Together we transform lives, improve neighborhoods, and most importantly give hope and strength to our communities.

Chatham Habitat for Humanity

467 West St., PO Box 883
Pittsboro, N.C. 27312
919.542.0794

Building houses, building hope.

Chatham Habitat for Humanity
Bett Foley
919.542.0794 x 222

Family Violence & Rape Crisis Services
Marianna Spence
919.542.5445